

PLAN FOR FUNERAL OF E. MACFARLANE

May Take Place on Sunday
From the Catholic Cathedral.

The remains of the late Edward C. Macfarlane will reach this city today in the Alameda, according to the information conveyed by the last steamer from the Coast. Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Macfarlane and the young widow will arrive in the ship, as well.

The present plans are that the casket shall be removed to the residence of Mr. H. R. Macfarlane, Punahou street, although the hour at which this will take place has not been set, and will not be until the arrival of Mr. F. W. Macfarlane.

Mr. E. C. Macfarlane, at the request of his bride and his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Macfarlane, became connected with the Catholic Church. The funeral, therefore, will take place from the Catholic Cathedral. The plans at present call for the services at 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. These plans may be changed if the widow so desires.

All arrangements for the funeral will be in charge of Mr. J. A. Hassinger, an old friend of the deceased. The list of pallbearers has been partially prepared, but will not be completed until Mr. F. W. Macfarlane has been consulted.

Mrs. E. C. Macfarlane will make her home with Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Macfarlane, at Waikiki, for the present.

STRUCK HEAD ON A PICKET

Last night about 10 o'clock a native named Kaahue fell from the top of a two-story house in Robello Lane and struck his head on wooden fence picket. The patrol wagon was sent to the scene and the injured man was conveyed to the Queen's Hospital, where he succumbed immediately after admission.

The picket pierced the unfortunate man's head, making a frightful wound. What deceased was doing on the top of the house at that hour of the night has not been ascertained.

Gay Mask Ball.

The mask ball given last night at Elks' Hall by the 1902 Social Club, was largely attended and in every way a success. The maskers came early and stayed late, and in the interval enjoyed several hours of fun-making and dancing. The hall was decorated with bougainvillea blossoms. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening. Many of the costumes were quite original, and for the first time Happy Hooligan, and Gaston and Alphonse, made their bow to a Honolulu audience. The prizes were awarded as follows: Best dressed lady, Maile, Mrs. Bools; most original costume, flower girl, Mrs. Ryder; best dressed gentleman, Zouave, Biskerton; most original gentleman's costume, "Gaston and Alphonse," Messrs. Lynch and Bonner; second most original, "Happy Hooligan," Charles West. Late in the evening the club presented to Mrs. Luning, who has been a hard worker for the club, a pretty pin.

New Store Building.

Ground is being broken at the corner of Merchant and Alakea streets, back of the Occidental Hotel, for the erection of a two-story building, to occupy 12 by 38 feet of ground space. The material used in its construction will be island blue-gray stone. The corner has been vacant since the early part of 1900, when the old buildings there were burned during the plague.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

There was no session of the Executive Council yesterday.

Hugh McIntyre is expected home in the Alameda this evening.

Arthur Wyman, late steward of the Pacific Club, entered yesterday upon his new duties as steward of the Hawaiian Hotel.

The grand jury reported four indictments yesterday, and ignored four cases. A final report will probably be made today, as the term ends tomorrow.

The Peru's mail brought to Miss A. Alice Allen the sad news of the death of her father, in Los Angeles, twenty-four hours after his arrival from New York city.

A large meeting of the Elks is expected for this evening, at the hall, Miller and Beretania streets, as there will be an initiation which should be well attended.

Judge Little got away quietly on the Peking for San Francisco, whence he will journey on to his old home in Pennsylvania, and incidentally, take a side trip to Washington.

The recruiting officer at Camp McKinley is said to be improving an opportunity for filling up the ranks there by securing recruits among the discharged soldiers on the Egbert.

Services were resumed last night in the Central Union gospel tent on Fort street, under the direction of Rev. Wm. M. Kincaid. A good sized audience was present. Mr. Kincaid spoke at considerable length.

Princess Kawanakoa has out invitations for a dinner and dance at the Moana Hotel on Monday evening, March 17th, in honor of Miss Campbell. Cards have been issued also for a reception at Pualellani on Tuesday next from 3:30 to 6 o'clock.

Judge Estee heard the arguments in the A. J. Fuller libel yesterday, and took the case under advisement. He intimated that he would allow the sailors some damages, and said he did not believe a captain had any right to give his crew the alternative of working or starving.

John C. Coburn, town clerk and assessor of Emeryville, Cal., and Miss Katherine C. Gribbe, of Honolulu, were married on March 1st at the Coburn residence, Emeryville. It was a quiet wedding, and there were no bridal attendants. Rev. Alfred Bayley, of the Congregational Church, officiated.

Commissioner Gill yesterday started the hearing of Manuel Castanha and his son Frank on a charge of violating the internal revenue laws of the United States. The apparatus used in distilling the liquor was introduced in court, and one witness was heard. The hearing was continued until this afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Buckeye Club Concert.

Madame Geneva Johnstone-Bishop will give a farewell concert at the opera house on Monday evening under the auspices of the Buckeye Club. The concert is given for the benefit of the McKinley memorial fund. The Buckeye Club lately pledged itself to contribute $500 to the fund, and has already about half the amount.
